MNICHOVSKÝ TYNEČEK

The village features a Neo-Gothic Chapel of St. Wenceslas from the 19th century.

HAZMBURK

The ruins of a Gothic castle are one of the most famous symbols of the České Středohoří (Central Bohemian Highlands).

LIBOCHOVICE

The village boasts a Baroque chateau from the late 17th century, along with a park often referred to as the "Czech Versailles."

SLAVETÍN

The Chapel of the Visitation of the Virgin Mary, a Baroque sacred building, is located on the outskirts of the village.

LOUNY

In Louny, you can visit several monuments and attractions, including the historic town center, the Church of St. Nicholas, and the city park Masaryk Gardens, which spans both banks of the Ohře River.

LIBCEVES

The dominant feature of the village is the ruins of a chateau built on the foundations of an original Gothic fortress from the 14th century.

VLASTISLAV

In the southern part of the village, you will find the ruins of a Gothic castle and a chateau named Skalka.

BOREC

Near the village is a hill of the same name, which is a natural monument. Borec is notable for a geological process called microexhalation, which prevents it from freezing even in winter.

MALE ZERNOSEKY

Located on the left bank of the Elbe River, northeast of the town of Lovosice. Together with Velke Zernoseky, it forms the center of winemaking in the Usti nad Labem Region.

LOVOSICE

In the town center, you can find several landmarks, including the Church of St. Wenceslas. The nearest mountain is Lovos, which serves as a natural focal point in the Lovosice panorama.

CERVENÝ VRCH U LOUN

Cervený vrch, also known as Stribrník, is a popular hiking destination above the village of Dobroměřice. At its summit stands the Ejemova Chalet, the only mountain chalet in the Louny region, as well as the Frotzl Lookout Tower.

LOUNY

In Louny, you can visit several landmarks and attractions, such as the historic town center or the Church of St. Nicholas. Don't miss the city park Masaryk Gardens, which spans both banks of the Ohře River.

RANA

The three-peaked hill Rana is one of the most beautiful and fascinating peaks in the České Středohoří (Central Bohemian Highlands). Although its elevation of 457.2 meters doesn't make it one of the giants, it is a sought-after destination for paragliders.

MNICHOV

A small village in the Louny district. Within its cadastral area lies the basalt hill Oblik. The entire hill is a nature reserve, home to protected species of plants and animals.
